HILL, TRIMTON WIN ROBINSON, OGDEN MEDALS

Winners To Be Presented in Chapel Exercises
Monday

THOMAS TO PRESIDE

Peter Trinton won the Ogdén medal for original oratory with his speech entitled "Fifteen Grams of Paper" and Zach Hill won the Robinson medal for declamation with his delivery of "The Tague Uncovered" in the annual Robinson-Ogdén oratorical contest held last night in Snell Hall auditorium.

Medals will be presented to the winners in chapel Monday when the winner of the Ogdén Trustees' scholarship medal will be announced and presented. The presentation will be in charge of Judge R. C. P. Thomas, member of the board of trustees of Ogdén College. Ogdén was merged with Western in 1928, and since that time these medals, which were traditional awards of that college, have been awarded to Western students.

Trinton, a senior on the Hill, won in the Ogdén contest over four opponents, John Buck speaking on "Maritana, Assassin of Youth," Gordon Edwards speaking on "We Suckers," Clarence Duggins speaking on "Machines, Money, and Men," and Robert Chenoweth speaking on "Puritan or Parent."

Hill triumphed in the declamation group over George Grise, delivering "Traitors at the Bar," Dick Cannon delivering "The Seven Million," and Robert Fay delivering "The Guilted Curtain." Judges in both contests were the Rev. Yandell Page, William Natcher, county attorney of Warren County, and Dr. Ward Sumpter, Bowling Green.

Lancaster, Skinner Named On Academy Committee May 14

Dr. L. S. Lancaster, retiring president of the Kentucky Academy of Science, was placed on the executive committee of the group and Dr. J. T. Skinner was chosen as a member of the membership committee at the annual meeting of the academy held in Morehead, Kentucky, on Friday and Saturday, May 13 and 14. Other officers elected at the business session were: Dr. W. R. Allen, University of Kentucky, president; Dr. Leffler, Transylvania, vice-president; Dr. Alfred Branser, University of Kentucky, re-elected treasurer.

Members of the Western science department who attended the meeting were: Dr. L. Y. Lancaster, Dr. J. T. Skinner, Dr. C. P. McNally, Prof. George Page, Prof. J. R. Whitmer, all of the faculty. Gresham Houghland and Samuel Allen, students of Western, and a number of others attended the meeting.

Dr. Skinner read a paper at the chemistry meeting and Samuel Allen read a research paper done in this institution. Wallace Smith, Milton B. Jansen, and Paul Majors, former students of Western, also presented papers.

The Friday business session was devoted to discussions related to the improvement of the academy, field trips, and tours. There was a banquet Friday night at which Dr. Ferdinand Payne of Indiana University was the principal speaker.

The Saturday business meeting was devoted to the election of officers. The place of meeting for next year has not been determined.

In announcing the re-election of all the present faculty members, President Garrett also announced a number of temporary and permanent additions to the teaching staff.

Teddy Hornback, Ludlow, Ky., has been employed as assistant coach in the physical education department and is to assume his new duties at the beginning of the fall term. Mr. Hornback, who was graduated here in 1929, has been, since his graduation, athletic director and head coach at the Ludlow High School.

Miss Stephan tendered her resignation last month because of her engagement and approaching marriage to Dr. Conrad B. Arnold. Eleanor Denhardt, Western graduate of 1937, is to fill the part-time job in the college library heretofore held by Miss Orendorf. Miss Denhardt has done special work this spring at Peabody College, Nashville.

Evelyn Lockman, who for the past year has conducted the Lockman School of the Dapce, is to teach during the summer term in the place of Gladys Perkerson, who is on leave of absence to do graduate work at Louisiana State University.

141 To Be Graduated In June 3rd Commencement

WINS 'DIVORCE' IN MOCK COURT BATTLE

Hurling charge and counter charge the litigants in the Cantrell divorce action came to a practical deadlock in their efforts to sway the jury to the one side or the other Monday, May 16, in the annual mock trial of the Congress Debating Club held in the auditorium of Van Meter Hall.

Witnesses from Main Street to Timbuctu presented a sordid picture of gross misconduct on both sides and on the part of both husband and wife, the whole being shot through with glaring discrepancies—all of which indicated something traditionally associated with Denmark.

A jury of twelve good specimens of home aepens were impressed, however, with the reputation of J. E. Cantrell, a "banker" who led a good life, and found for him in their verdict, but out of the goodness of their hearts, recommended that a reconciliation be effected.

"Judge" Ray Logan so advised.

GLEE CLUB ENDS SEASON MAY 20

The program for chapel follows: "Glorious Forever," Rachmaninoff; "Dedication," Franz; "On the Sea," Buck; "The Beetle and the Flower," Velt; by the Glee Club.

The Male Quartet sang two numbers: "By the Bend of the River," Edwards-Dels; and "Shadow March," Protheroe; "Listen to the Lambs," Dett, was given by the Glee Club; and then Frank Baird played a cornet solo, "Stars in a Velvety Sky," by Clarke.

The Glee Club next presented a skit, "Heigh-ho" (from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs) played by Seven Dwarfs who were: "Dopey," Kendall Bryant; "Doc," Marion Hurt; "Sleepy," Robert Mundell; "Sneezy," E. J. Reithel; "Bashful," Tyler Hoskinson; "Grumpy," Gilbert Scarbrough; and "Happy," Dale Grabbill.

The program closed with a group of songs by the Glee Club: "Lassie O'Mine," Walt; "Mah Lindy Lou," Strickland; "Gleanings of the Field," (from the Firefly) Friml; and "The Sleigh," Kountz.

"The College Heights Herald is the outgrowth of a long-felt need of the students of Western for a means of expressing their viewpoint and ideas of the life of the college as well as for disseminating the news of various activities on the campus."

Silver Anniversary, Teachers College Heights.

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1938

IN THE LAST ISSUE OF THE HERALD A survey of the Hill was projected in which a great deal of information concerning the school was planned. Due to space conditions in this issue it could not be used, but one conclusion reached in a survey of the progress of the college within the last year needs to be pointed out.

There have been a number of minor improvements on the campus, the one having perhaps the most widespread effect on the students as a whole being the change in the chapel schedule. These changes, in general, indicate that the college is on the right road.

But there are a number of things which might be done to speed up progress on that road. A college cafeteria, a college magazine, and some form of partial student self-government, and need the Herald repeat weekly editions of the College Heights Herald are some of the things that need immediate consideration of the administration.

Is it worth while to be on the right road if you're standing still?

YESTERDAY A YOUNG MAN ASKED THE editor of the Herald for a bit of information. The young man was on his way to the Library, which is not surprising since these are the days of term reports. The young man also indicated that he knows that a certain part of the Library is called the "Reserve," which was only mildly shocking. But what followed was certainly a blow to be remembered.

The youth wanted to know the name of some book in the "Reserve." Any book would do. What did he want with it?

No matter what you guess, you're wrong. He explained his interest as follows: "The Library charges fines for books kept over-time. Reserve books are easy to keep over-time when you're in a hurry. The registrar will not release grades when one owes library fines. Low grades are not liked at home. Therefore a good 50c library fine, accumulated at the rate of 5c per hour, saves one from a great deal of embarrassment by keeping grades from reaching parents."

It would be easy to blame the student and expose him to scathing criticism. He is guilty, and has confessed his shortcoming.

But what about an educational system that leads to such efforts to cover up one's failings, to "save face." What is there to say in defense of a system that puts so much value upon a grade that cramming becomes the highest attribute of scholarship, cheating the last desperate effort to save one's reputation, and "fixing" similar to that in the incident related above becomes the pride of students too sophisticated to resort to "apple polishing."

The students should bear their share of the blame for conditions such as this, but those in charge of the system might well cease to ignore certain effects of grading systems, especially in those cases where evaluation of knowledge depends almost entirely upon test grades.

ANOTHER SPRING TERM IS ALMOST GONE and the beautiful swimming pool connected with the physical education building is not in condition to be used by the students.

There are reasons for this, of course.

There is very little weather suitable for outdoor swimming in the spring term. There is not enough time left after each weather arrives to organize classes in swimming in the spring.

But a great many of the regular Western students who are here for the regular term cannot stay for summer school. This prevents many students from using one of the most-prized recreational advantages of the college.

TOPPERS DROP DOUBLE TILT

Defeated By The Maroons 10-0, 12-5

Following a 9-8 victory over the University of Louisville Cardinals on Friday at Louisville, the Western nine returned to Bowling Green to drop a double-header to the Eastern baseballers on Saturday by 10-0 and 12-5. The pair of victories which the Easterners garnered at the "Toppers" expense made it four in a row for the Richmond athletes who are recognized to have the most potent outfit in the state.

Behind the seven-hit hurling of L. King the winners coasted to an easy win in the first tilt as they combed Jim Glover and Bob Yates, local southpaw, for a total of 17 sacrifices. Don Rice limited the Diddlemen to five runs and five hits in the seven-inning nip-tap while the Maroons collected 10 hits and 12 runs off Ball and Moore.

Williams, Maroon left-fielder, who was called in to catch after Caldwell had suffered a finger injury in the second inning of the first game, was the hitting star of the afternoon with six hits in eight official trips to the plate. Merlino, who did a "hifty" job of holding at short for the visitors collected five hits in ten trips. Ramsey collected two bingles to lead the local batters in the opener while the "Toppers" five hits in the second tilt were divided among five players.

The Hittoppers' 9-8 win over U. of L. the day before was featured by Lucien Adams' round tripper in the seventh frame to account for the winning margin. Ted Zimney toiled on the hill for the losers, while Marvum worked for Western, being relieved by Ball in the eighth.

Williams, Maroon left-fielder, who was called in to catch after Caldwell had suffered a finger injury in the second inning of the first game, was the hitting star of the afternoon with six hits in eight official trips to the plate. Merlino, who did a "hifty" job of holding at short for the visitors collected five hits in ten trips. Ramsey collected two bingles to lead the local batters in the opener while the "Toppers" five hits in the second tilt were divided among five players.

The Hittoppers' 9-8 win over U. of L. the day before was featured by Lucien Adams' round tripper in the seventh frame to account for the winning margin. Ted Zimney toiled on the hill for the losers, while Marvum worked for Western, being relieved by Ball in the eighth.

SPORTS

By Robert L. Fay, Herald Sports Editor

Whether the local fandom has come to realize it or not, Bowling Green and the Western tennis team is blessed with a rather unusual fellow. In fact, when you get to know them, they are all rather unusual fellows.

But the topic of this "Dissertation Upon a Point" is not just dissertation is none other than that red-headed comet of the courts, Norman "Kubla" Kahn. "Kubla" came to Western from the University of Louisville where he graced Belknap campus last year. In fact Jerry McNeely, champion of tennis in and around the Louisville public park area, kindly lent us to the punch. Appearing in the Courier Journal last summer was a picture of our worthy in the act of swatting a forehand, above which glared the all-revealing headlines, "The Don of Louisville."

It seems as though it kinda caught on, up in those parts, too. Kahn rose to the heights of tour-around tennis and intra club play there. The caption mentioned above, however, failed to include the final necessary ingredient, the nickname, "Kubla" which we have tacked on.

Red McCrocklin Rated All-American Center

Picked By Chuck Taylor For Converse Yearbook Team

William "Red" McCrocklin, captain of the 1933 Western basketball team, all-KIAC and all-SIAA performer for the past three years, was chosen as center on the mythical all-American basketball team selected each year by "Chuck" Taylor and is to be featured in the Converse Yearbook which will be published last season. Kahn performed at the No. 1 singles post for the Shawnee Tennis Club, but has chosen to change locations this year and will be wearing the colors of the Western Tennis Club, which, incidentally, has no connection with our college of Louisville, a club which will feature such sterling performers as Studie Butler, veteran of Louisville's tennis circles, and Al Nussim, top performer in and around Paducah.

The Western tennis team and its captain, Ralph Dudgeon, established claims to the KIAC titles as a result of their clean sweep of Eastern Kentucky tennis competition last week-end when they met and defeated the Berea, Centre, and Eastern net teams.

Dudgeon, captain and No. 1 man of the Western team for the past three years, clearly demonstrated his superiority over No. 1 performers in the state throughout the current campaign by decisively defeating all performers he has met. In spite of the erroneous report that he had been defeated at Berea by Durham, Mountaineer ace, Captain Dudgeon experienced little or no trouble in disposing of him although the match went to three sets. Dudgeon won 4-6, 6-3. Other netters he has defeated include Bob Noel, Murray, Rodman, Center, Estes, Cumberland, and Arbuckle Kestern.

The Western team, with a record of five victories and no defeats thus far in the season, has met and easily defeated every college in the KIAC boasting a tennis team, except Louisville. On the basis of their season performance, and the past individual encounters between Western and Louisville players, the Hilltoppers have a decided edge.

The "Toppers" return match with Cumberland University originally scheduled for Friday has been called off because of the fact that the Tennessee team has been forced to disband for the season with the conclusion of their school. Western meets Murray Saturday afternoon at Murray in the final match of the campaign.

If Kahn and Winkenhof don't "jibe" each other too much next year, both should go places in local tennis circle as graduation gets them.

Word has just come to this columnist that Alvin Tree, a Trigg, No. 3 performer in the squad, has just been removed to his home suffering from what appears to be appendicitis. This ailment, coming at such an ined next month in Malden, Mass. Information concerning McCrocklin's selection for All-American recognition was received here Saturday, May 21. The other seven athletes chosen to comprise the team were not revealed.

McCrocklin, whose home is in Louisville, has been the bulwark of the Western team for the past three years and his selection for such recognition is a fitting culmination of a brilliant athletic and scholastic career.

In spite of his brilliant performances on the hardwood at Western, "Red" did not participate in the net sport at Louisville Male High School where he graduated. It remained for Coach Ed Diddle to find him playing independent basketball around West Point and induce him to enter Western. He enrolled here in the fall of 1931 at the age of 16, entering late to participate in freshman basketball that year.

The following year McCrocklin made the Western net team and climaxed a brilliant season of play by being selected on the all-KIAC and all-SIAA honor teams that year.

As a junior, he again sparked the Westerners, and was once more chosen on both tournament teams.

This year, as captain of the squad, he led the team to their seventh consecutive KIAC championship and their second consecutive SIAA title. In the race for scoring honors "Red" finished third with a total of 176 points, making 71 field goals and 31 free throws.

In addition to his prowess on the basketball court, Red is a leader in all student activities, serving as president of the Jefferson County group at Western in 1932-33. He was selected this year as one of the ten outstanding seniors on the Hill. He is active in many extra-curricular activities. McCrocklin will be graduated in June with an A. B. degree. His major is English and his minors are mathematics and social science.

Basketball is not the only sport in which McCrocklin has participated. He was a member of the Western track squad this year, performing in the high jump. He is also vice-president of the senior class at Western.

"Red" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. McCrocklin, 14 Washington Apartments, Louisville.

opportunity time is really too bad, but it is hoped that the above misspelling of his name—and it rather intrigues him to have someone call him Tree—may serve to snap him out of it.

Well, it looks as if Western now holds a state track record which is "some shakes" around these parts. Sam Pancipinto is the gent who hung up the record in the shot put event with a toss of 43 feet, 6 inches. Coach Terry and folks who have watched him throw the steel ball around predicted that he would hang up a record at Berea, and that is exactly what he did.

WESTERN LOSES 2ND TRACK TILT

Murray Victinizes Toppers By 70-30

The Western track team lost its second match of the season recently to Murray. The Terry men were victimized by the thoroughbreds of Murray 87-30. This was the first meeting of the two schools in track competition. Murray annexed a dozen firsts in the 15 events and scored nine second places, while the Toppers were only able to gather 3 firsts and 6 seconds.

Ross Magruder of the Murray team proved to be the best man on the field as he had a total of 21 points to his credit at the close of the afternoon. Red Oliver of the Western team placed second with a total of 11 points.

Winners and seconds in the various events are as follows: Mile, Downey (M), Arterburn (W), 5:08.7.

The news of Teddy Hornback's selection as assistant coach at Western for the upcoming school year was surprising by its unexpectedness, but now that the news has had time to sink in, it doesn't seem that it should have been surprising. In view of Teddy's splendid record while in school here and his coaching record since graduating it doesn't seem as though the powers that be could have made any other decision. Western is fortunate in being able to secure such a fine man to add to her staff, and the entire school and populace of Bowling Green will look forward to his coming.

Back to tennis for a stretch. . . . Ralph Dudgeon, captain and No. 1 man of the Western net squad has carried by his brilliant performances this year the recognition as the No. 1 intercollegiate tennis player in the state. In spite of the erroneous reports that Durham, Berea ace, defeated Dudgeon last Thursday in a match there, the Western performer—although he dropped the first set of a three set match—had little trouble disposing of his opponent. Dudgeon has showed decisive superiority over every opponent he has met this year, and although he has been inclined to fiddle around a bit in the hope of obtaining a little opposition, only one or two players in the state could give him much argument when he really settled down to play tennis.

VANDY TAKES 2 OF 3 TILTS

Errors Prove Downfall Of Toppers

Eleven errors, ten of them in field misuses, and one outfield muff brought about the Western Hilltoppers' downfall Saturday afternoon, May 14, as the Vanderbilt nine defeated the locals 13-9 for their second win in three starts against Western, which caused the postponement

In spite of threatening weather of the previous day's tilt, the game was played under overcast skies which may have been a contributing factor to the local errors and the ineffectiveness of Vandy's ace hurler "Cy" Perkins. A couple of markers in the first frame gave Vandy a 2-0 lead which, however, was short-lived as the Toppers rang up a 7-3 lead ere the fifth canto was concluded. Errors, however, soon destroyed the Western advantage and the Commodores went on to emerge on the heavy end of a 13-9 score.

The Vandy batters collected an even dozen safeties off the combined offerings of Jim Glover and Herb Hall who handled the flinging chores of the local while the Westerners collected ten safeties off Cy Perkins.

A final spurge in the last frame found Hilltopper batsmen populating the sacks, but Cooper, Western third sacker, skied to left for the final out of the game.

Wilson's Story Of McElroy Farm To Be In 'Bird Lore'

Dr. Gordon Wilson has prepared a 2,500 word article on the different species of birds found on the McElroy farm for Bird Lore Magazine on a special assignment of the editor.

The farm located ten miles south of Bowling Green on Trinity Pike half way between Richmond and Woodburn, and is owned by C. U. McElroy.

On the account of a depression on the farm, an overflow of water every year results. During 1927 water covered 1000 acres of the farm.

Dr. Wilson states that he had found 65 different kinds of water birds on this farm alone compared with only 36 surrounding all Bowling Green.

The article will be profusely illustrated.

FROSH TAKE TRACK TITLE
Varsity Places Fourth In State Meet
By Herbert Smith
The Western "Baby" Hilltoppers captured the annual state freshman track meet Monday afternoon by collecting a total of 83 2-3 points, while the Hilltoppers varsity did not fare so well and placed fourth in a seven-team meet held at Berea. The Toppers collected 20 1-2 points.

The host team, Berea, placed first in the varsity meet by scoring more than double the number of points of the second place team, Centre College. The Berea team collected a total of 78 points, Centre was second with 33, Murray third with 26 4-2. Western came forth with the total of 20 1-2, Georgetown, placed fifth with 13, and the University of Louisville 1, the other college in the meet failed to score.

Three state records fell although the winning team, Berea, failed to get any of them. Panepinto, Western strong man, destroyed the old shotput record by putting the weight 43 feet 3-14 inches, was held by Ralph Hammack, former Western track star.

Robinson of Georgetown set a new state mark in the high-jumps when he stepped the 120-yards in 15.4. The former record was 15.6, held by Shields also of Georgetown.

Thomson of Murray set a new record for the 220-yard dash when he burned the cinders to the tune of 22.1, the old mark, 22.6 was set by German of Centre last season. German placed second in the event Monday.

The individual star of the meet was Roberts, captain of the Berea squad, who took a total of 11 points. He was followed closely by his teammate, Pilson, who made a total of 10 points.

The freshmen meet was won in an easy fashion by the Western freshmen who took first place in seven events. The Berea freshmen finished second with 46 points, Centre third at 32 1-2, Georgetown fourth with 17, and Eastern last with 14.

Don White led the Western freshmen - scoring with first places in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, and broad jump. He tied for first in the high jump and ran second in the 220-yard dash. White ran anchor man on the Hilltoppers' winning half-mile relay team.

Tom Zoretic was first in the discus throw, John Mazlack first in the 120-yard high hurdles and Charles Taylor, former College High star, was first in the 440-yard dash. John Primrose was tied for first in the high jump, and was second in the pole vault and broad jump. Other "Baby" Hilltoppers to score were Hawkins in the mile run and Sparks in the low hurdles.

Summary of the varsity events:
100-yard Run—Pilson (B), Caudill (B), Clark (B), Sherrer (B). Time 4:49.4.
